...leged That Was Infatuated With Young Woman.

...TTER FROM HAWKINS FOUND

...d He Killed Himself in Presence of Wife and Children—Illicit Relations Between Grass Widow and Hawkins Not Suspected.

Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 6.—As a sequel to the cold-blooded assassination of Mrs. William Garrett, a grass widow, at Abingdon, Va., Saturday night, came the suicide Sunday at Abingdon of John Hawkins, a near neighbor of the woman. His suicide followed his learning that he was under suspicion for the killing of Mrs. Garrett.

Hawkins was a married man about ... years old and leaves a wife and three small children. His reputation had been excellent and he had never before been under suspicion. Hawkins became connected with the case by the discovery of a letter which he had written Mrs. Garrett and which is now in the possession of the commonwealth's attorney.

In this letter, it is said, is matter incriminating the dead man and Mrs. Garrett, although the woman is said to have lived in a way not to invite surpicion. Mrs. Garrett's assassination was a horrible affair, her head being partially blown off by two loads from a shotgun.

Hawkins killed himself in the presence of his wife and children.

Test Case Called.

New York, Nov. 6.—The case of Chief Yeoman Tracey J. Bunzell, U. S. N., against the New Port Amusement association was called in the superior court at Newport, R. I., on Monday. President Roosevelt has contributed $100 toward its prosecution, as it is to test the right of any place of amusement to debar men wearing the United States uniform. The defendant's counsel claims in demurrer that there is no law by which an amusement company can be prevented from prohibiting sailors in uniform from dancing in its hall. The demurrer will be heard and if it is sustained, Bunzell and counsel will carry the case to the supreme court. If not allowed, the case will go before a jury on its merits.

IN ALACHUA COUNTY.

Notwithstanding that Tuesday was a general election, in which many important issues, especially amendments to the Constitution, were to be voted upon, comparatively little interest was manifested locally, and the vote fell away short of the registered strength of this precinct.

The vote throughout the county, however, was fair, which was evident that the people in the country were more deeply interested than the town people.

The center of interest in Gainesville, as everywhere else, was the drainage amendment, this amendment being the principal measure upon which the political line was drawn.

The day was clear and inviting, and it was expected that a considerably larger vote would be polled; but the voters of Gainesville seemed void of the energy of walking to the polls. Had the full vote been polled the drainage amendment would have been more mercilessly defeated.

So deeply interested were the people of the county in this drainage question that all sight was lost in the count for the regular candidates, and, notwithstanding that an endeavor was made, it was impossible to secure the returns complete of the various precincts. However, as that part of the ticket was a certain Democratic success, little attention was paid to it.

Following is the result of the election in Gainesville:

Boston, Mass., Nov. 6.—District Attorney John B. Moran, sent a letter to District Attorney William ... Jerome, of New York, Sunday ... which he stated that he was informe... by State Senator A. D. Hughes, ... Michigan, that there is in the possession of Collier's Weekly evidence ... the form of original documents, letters, telegrams and secret cod... which tends to show that an organize... method of legislative corruption ... practiced by the so-called tobacco trust throughout the country.

The letter follows:

"I am credibly informed by one A. D. Hughes, formerly a state senator of Michigan, that there is in the possession of the proprietors of a publication by the name of Collier's Weekly, having its usual place of business in New York city, evidence in the form of the original documents, letters, telegrams, secret codes and the translation thereof, some copies of which I now have and which I append herewith for the purpose of identification, which tends to show an organized, systematic and practiced by the so-called tobacco trust throughout the country.

"I am informed that some of the documents, copies of which I do not have, tend to show that several bills affecting the interest of the said tobacco trust, were defeated at the capital of this commonwealth at the last session of our general court (Massachusetts legislature) by practices which are a part of this systematic scheme. I am informed that the proprietors of the said Collier's Weekly have purchased the evidence for a large sum of money under a contract to publish the same not later than ten weeks after the first day of August; that the last day for publishing the same has expired; that the said Collier's Weekly has refused to publish the same, according to contract.

"I am further informed that Collier's Weekly is delaying publication of this evidence in violation of its contract, until after the election, lest it should have an injurious effect upon Republican candidates on election day.

"Therefore, I respectfully request you to obtain the same evidence and transmit to be forthwith, in order that I may begin an immediate inquiry to such acts occurring in my jurisdiction as may be disclosed by an examination of the said documents."

In making public the letter, Mr. Moran also gave to the press copies of many letters, telegrams and codes, one letter being from Hughes.

Hughes claims that he bought a factory in Marion, Ind., from State Senator O. A. Baker, and in the factory Mr. Hughes found a desk, which he asserts was full of correspondence and documents revealing certain transactions with the American Tobacco company.

Hughes states in his letter that he endeavored to interest President Roosevelt and Governor Hanley, of Indiana, but was unsuccessful. He then sold the documents to Collier's under contract to be published Oct. 9 last.

At the conclusion of the work a delicious supper was served by the Alachua boys of Woodcraft, which it is needless to add was relished, after a hard night's work.

There comes word to this paper from Mr. Lauber, manager of Tampa Bay's most elegant and luxurious hotel, The Tampa Bay, that that palatial house will be open to Fair guests at prices ranging as low as $3 00 per day. It will be a rare chance for visitors to enjoy the splendid hospitality of a house that has no peer in the Southern States, and all are advised to secure board and lodging there at the earliest possible moment, by writing or wiring the manager; for almost its unlimited capacity will be taxed to the utmost by the vast throngs that will visit Florida's annual exhibition of her industries, enlivened by many wonderful special features for the entertainment of visitors.

At least $25,000 have been expended on the Tampa Bay Hotel during the summer, and since the days of Henry B. Plant it has never been in so excellent a condition to furnish a perfect hospitality to its inmates.

CONFEDERATE VETS WILL HAVE BIG TIME

Elaborate Preparation Being Made to Entertain Them Here.

MANY VISITORS ARE EXPECTED

Committees Are Working Hard for the Success of the Reunion, Which Will Be Held on Tuesday and Wednesday, November 13 and 14.

As the time grows near for the holding of the State reunion of the United Confederate Veterans of Florida, interest seems to be increasing, and the indications are now that this will be one of the most successful and one of the most largely attended reunions the Veterans ever had.

The various committees appointed by Stonewall Camp, U. C. V., of this city, at a meeting about a month ago, are hard at work at their various duties, which is an assurance that the event will be one which will go down as one of the brightest laurels in Gainesville's history.

The ladies of the Daughters of the Confederacy have also been co-operating with the Veterans in making this reunion one of the greatest successes in State history. Both Chapters of the Daughters, as well as other ladies, have worked faithfully towards making the occasion one of grandeur and glory for Gainesville and the gray-haired Veterans who visit the city, and numerous receptions and parties have been arranged for their entertainment. The Association of the Blue and Gray, which is an adjunct of the United Confederate Veterans and the G. A. R., at a recent meeting showed its inclination to encourage the reunion by appointing various committees to work in conjunction with the committees of Stonewall Camp and the Daughters of the Confederacy.

The committee on reception and entertainment is composed of three well known and popular Veterans—S. H. Wienges, W. L. Jackson and J. D. Matheson. This committee is losing no opportunity to perfect every arrangement for the reception and entertainment of the visitors.

The people of Gainesville generally are manifesting a great deal of interest in the coming reunion, which will bring hundreds of the men who fought for the cause of the Confederacy—the cause which they believed to be right—together from every section of the State. These reunions, which are held annually, are the only means by which the veterans can assemble together and talk over "old times"—times when men's hearts and nerves were tried and not found wanting. This type of loyal citizenship of olden times is becoming more extinct each year, and it will not be long before they will be a memory of the past, but a memory scarce and reverenced. It is, therefore, no more than fitting that they should be supplied with every facility for enjoyment and discussion of reminiscences once each year, and it is gratifying to know that the people of Gainesville are almost as a unit in entertaining them.

A program of the exercises will be published as soon as prepared. Suffice it to say at this time, the program will be a most interesting one.

University Boys Home.

The University of Florida football team has returned home from Savannah, where on Monday they met the Blue and White team of the Forest City on the gridiron.

Notwithstanding that the boys suffered defeat, owing largey to the fact that they were entirely outclassed as regards weight, they were a cheerful lot, and feel by no means discouraged.

On Their Way.

During a newspaper men's convention, a number of journalists were one afternoon talking of the tricks of "the faithless types," when Henry Watterson said:

"While I've heard of a great many funny typographical breaks in my time, about the oddest and most humorous transposition of the types that ever came within my observation was that in a New York paper some years ago. That sheet used to print its shipping news on the same page with the obituaries. Imagine the glee with which its readers found the captions exchanged one morning, whereby a long list of respectable names were set forth under the marine head, 'Passed Through Hell Gate Yesterday.'"—Harper's Weekly.

WAMPUM.

What It Is and How the Indians Used to Make It.

When Columbus discovered America he found the Indians carrying on trade from tribe to tribe with wampum. Anything that has value may be used as money. In ancient Syracuse and Britain tin was used as money, and we find that iron was so used at one time in Sparta, pieces of silk in China, cattle in Rome and Germany, leather among the Carthaginians, nails in Scotland, lead in Burma, platinum in Russia, cubes of pressed tea in Tartary, slaves among the Anglo-Saxons, salt in Abyssinia, etc.

Wampum is from an Algonquin word meaning "white." The Indians have ever been fond of ornaments, particularly of beads. They used to make beads of seashells in the following way: A fragment of stone was with much care "worked down" to the size of a small nail, having one end quite pointed, and it was then fastened to a piece of cane or a reed. With this simple tool the Indian workman chipped off a bit of the inside of a conch shell or a part of the shell of a hard clam and rubbed it down to the size desired. This bit of shell he held in his hand, placed the sharp end of the stone against it and then turned the stone around and around until a hole was drilled entirely through the shell.

The shell beads thus tediously manufactured were called wampum. These beads were either white or of a purple color, the last being valued much higher than the first. It was the very laborious way of making wampum that gave it value. The wampum was artistically strung upon hempen threads and used as necklaces, bracelets and rings. Often it was woven into belts about three inches in width and two feet in length.

The wampum belt served many purposes. It was sent from tribe to tribe with solemn promises and messages, it was used in making peace, in asking for aid in time of war, for personal adornment and also as a "circulating medium." The coast tribe Indians were the wampum makers. The interior Indians spent their time hunting and exchanged game of all kinds for the wampum made by the coast tribes.

For a long time after white people had settled in the new world small coins were scarce and wampum was used as change. Finally the palefaces set up lathes by treadles for the purpose of making wampum quickly, and soon the Indian wampum makers were, as we say nowadays, "out of a job."

Early English Bookbindings.

During the reign of Elizabeth the fashion in bookbinding underwent a considerable change, the graceful simplicity of the early work, with its rather severe and restrained ornament, giving place to a heavy, overdecorated style, in which a superabundance of gilding hid poverty of design. This style reached its height in the bindings produced for James I., which were commonly dotted all over with flowers-de-luce or thistles, while the corners were filled with a heavy block of coarse design. During the reign of Charles the bindings were, as a rule, copied from French work, and the designs carried out with very small tools; but, though foreign influence was strongly felt at first, the English binders soon struck out a line of their own, and Samuel Mearne, the binder to Charles II., produced some admirable work and seems to have introduced the quaintly shaped panel which gave the name of cottage binding to a certain class of work. At a little later date an Edinburgh binder, whose name is unknown, but whose work is easily distinguishable, executed some marvelous pieces of work on very dark green morocco.

Men Have Not Degenerated.

It is common to hear of the giant people who lived in the old days, yet it is decidedly uncommon to find proof that the average ancient was any larger or more powerfully built than the average person of the present day. The Egyptian mummies show these people to have been of medium size. The remains taken from the catacombs do not differ in size from the people of the present, while the armor which was worn by the warriors of the long ago fit admirably the forms of people who are not at all gigantic or at least extraordinarily above the average either in girth or stature. There were great men in the old days, but as great still obtain in this twentieth century.

FEARFUL PAINS

SUGGESTIONS HOW WOMEN MAY FIND RELIEF.

While no woman is entirely free from periodical suffering, it does not seem to be the plan of nature that women should suffer so severely. This is a severe strain on a woman's vitality. When pain exists something is wrong which should be set right or it will lead to a serious derangement of the whole female organism.

Thousands of women have testified in grateful letters to Mrs. Pinkham that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound overcomes woman's special pains and irregularities.

It provides a safe and sure way of escape from distressing and dangerous weaknesses and diseases.

The two following letters tell so convincingly what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will do for women, they cannot fail to bring hope to thousands of sufferers.

Miss Nellie Holmes, of 540 N. Division Street, Buffalo, N. Y., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Your medicine is indeed an ideal medicine for women. I suffered misery for years with painful periods, headaches, and bearing-down pains. I consulted two different physicians but failed to get any relief. A friend from the east advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and no longer suffer as I did before. My periods are natural; every ache and pain is gone, and my general health is much improved. I advise all women who suffer to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. Tillie Hart, of Larimore, N. D., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I might have been spared many months of suffering and pain had I only known of the efficacy of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound sooner; for I have tried so many remedies without help.

"I dreaded the approach of every month as it meant so much pain and suffering for me, but after I had used the Compound two months I became regular and natural and am now perfectly well and free from pain. I am very grateful for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."

Such testimony should be accepted by all women as convincing evidence that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands without a peer as a remedy for all the distressing ills of women.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound rests upon the well-earned gratitude of American women.

When women are troubled with pain or irregularities, displacements or ulceration of the organs, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation, backache, bloating (or flatulency), general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine, for you need the best.

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about your sickness you do not understand. She will treat you with kindness and her advice is free. No woman ever regretted writing her and she has helped thousands. Address Lynn, Mass.

HAS AROUSED INDIGNATION.

Methods of Peabody Causes Protest of Policyholders.

New York, Nov. 6.—The following statement was given out Sunday night by Russell Fish, secrtary of the Mutual Life policyholders' association:

"The unwarranted methods adopted by President Peabody and other officers of the Mutual Life in electioneering have not only aroused the indignation and protest of policyholders throughout the country, but have also stirred up the insurance departments of a number of states, notably Kentucky, Michigan, Tennessee, Minnesota and Missouri.

"At the request of the Mutual Life policyholders' association a number of state insurance commissioners will soon meet in New York to make a thorough investigation of these matters. The charges against the present management of the Mutual by Mr. Calvin Tomkins, vice president of the Mutual Life policyholders' association, and filed with the Mutual on Oct. 10, 1906, which charges Mr. Peabody has declined to investigate will probably form the basis for this investigation.

"In a letter addressed to the members of the executive committe Mr. Fish says there is still hope for action against Messrs. Peabody, Rogers and others, as a result of what Mr. Fish declares to be a conspiracy. This case was placed before District Attorney Jerome on Oct. 18."

Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Beaten by Negroes.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 6.—Joe Figg, aged 45, a transfer man, was knocked down by negro footpads on Steele street. The negroes struck him on the head with a slungshot. Figg gave an outcry, frightening away his assailants, who were bent on robbery. He had $50 on his person. There is talk of mob violence if the negroes are captured.

United States Apple Crop.

New York, Nov. 6.—The apple crop in the United States has just been estimated to be 36,120,000 bushels. This is 12,625,000 barrels more than the 1905 crop. The estimated crop in New York state is 4,090,000 barrels, or 1,000,000 barrels larger than in any other state.

"Black Hand" Uses Dynamite.

New York, Nov. 6.—Unsuccessful in their alleged attempts to blackmail Francisco Mossina, a prosperous tailor of Brooklyn, members of the so-called "Black Hand" society, so the police say, hurled a dynamite bomb against the front door of the tenement house in which he lives and conducts his business and caused a damage of $3,000 to the building and surrounding proper-. Scores of persons felt the shock of the explosion, but no one was injured. Following closely a half dozen similar outrages in the same neighborhood, this attack has spread terror among the poorer Italians. Sunday night detectives arrested three men who described themselves as Frank and Antonio Passaminate and Baldasino Panalfe.

Made Happy For Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. Atlantic City, N. These men had been at work examining the bridge and cars all day. The details of their discovery were not made public. The inquest will be continued, and grapplers who did work failed to find the body of the missing boy, Joseph Macelroy.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivaled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. UNITED STATES COURT OF CLAIMS

The Publishers of Webster's International Dictionary allege that it "is, in fact, the popular Unabridged thoroughly re-edited in every detail, and vastly enriched in every part, with the purpose of adapting it to meet the larger and severer requirements of another generation."

We are of the opinion that this allegation most clearly and accurately describes the work that has been accomplished and the result that has been reached. The Dictionary, as it now stands, has been thoroughly re-edited in every detail, has been corrected in every part, and is admirably adapted to meet the larger and severer requirements of a generation which demands more of popular philological knowledge than any generation that the world has ever contained.

It is perhaps needless to add that we refer to the dictionary in our judicial work as of the highest authority in accuracy of definition; and that in the future as in the past it will be the source of constant reference.

APPORTIONMENT OF SCHOOL FUND.

Below will be found the semi-annual apportionment of the one-mill tax by Hon. W. M. Holloway, State Superintendent of Public Instruction; $82,602.14 is the amount apportioned, which is the largest semi-annual apportionment of the one-mill tax in the history of public schools in this State.

This amount of money is apportioned on the basis of the average attendance of the State, which is 88,832, the same being the largest average attendance for any year by several thousand. The average attendance for the last scholastic year shows an increase over the preceding year of nearly six per cent. This is indeed a fine showing, and speaks well for the educational system of Florida.

George J. Gould says that a trans-continental railroad of the United States is assured. Meanwhile, however, Mr. Harriman, by his acquisition of an increased interest in the Baltimore & Ohio, appears also to be reaching out for a trans-continental system. A short time ago one of the leading railroad men of the country—not Mr. Gould—declared that in twenty years the whole railroad situation in the country would be radically changed and that the situation then would be a few systems reaching from the Atlantic to the Pacific. If this takes place it will be revolutionary indeed, for it has been the judgment of the best railroad experience that the public and the stockholder could best be served by making the Mississippi river the great dividing line of the railroad systems of the country. This, for instance, has been and still is the policy of the Pennsylvania Railroad, which has thus far persistently refused to enter into any plan of extending its system beyond the Mississippi.

THE STATE FAIR.

Wednesday next is the opening day of the great Florida State Fair at Tampa, and the day will be the most brilliant and memorial one in the history of the Paradise of Flowers. The hospitable citizens of the Gateway of the Gulf have already made preparations for the care and entertainment of thousands of Floridians and visitors from other States, the latter of whom will come to Tampa by trainloads and visit all sections of the State in search of permanent homes. Never before has such an advertising campaign been conducted in behalf of Florida as that which has just been brought to a close by the Fair Association and railroads, and letters received indicate that the attendance of homeseekers will be immense. The rates given by the railroads from all sections are the lowest on record.

The opening day will be known as "Press Day," in honor of the editors of Florida, and a feature of the day will be the annual banquet at the Tampa Bay Hotel in their honor. This banquet will also be attended by State officials, members of the Legislature and other prominent visitors. Governor Broward, promptly at the noon hour, will open the Fair gates, and addresses will be made by other prominent statesmen. The parade and opening day will be unrivaled in their brilliancy. Every department will be in absolute readiness at the opening hour, and the Fair will appear to as good advantage as on the closing day. New buildings and other notable improvements, upon which thousands of dollars have been expended, will be apparent to those who attended the Fair last year.

The Florida State Fair, owing to the great success achieved last year, has become famous as the greatest fair held by a single State anywhere in the country, a fact in which every public-spirited Floridian should take pride. Every man, woman and child in the State should attend. They are assured the best of accommodations at low rates.

"I had trouble with my bowels which made my blood impure. My face was covered with pimples which no external remedy could remove. Justice of Inequality.

The eastern tale is generally a compound of that humor, simplicity and imagination that we associate, rightly or wrongly, with the Irishman, just because Ireland is the nearest country to our own that is not aggressively Saxon. What could be more Irish, for instance, than the behavior of the great Turkish hero of so many stories, Nasr-ed-Din Hodja, when a neighbor came to borrow his donkey. "My donkey is not here," he said. The words were scarcely out of his mouth when the animal brayed loudly. "But your donkey is here; I can hear him," cried the neighbor. "What!" shouted the enraged Turk. "Do you mean to say you believe my donkey before you believe me?"

Wit in the east, as elsewhere, is nothing without its accompanying quality of insight to turn it into exquisite humor, and Nasr-ed-Din Hodja showed himself at his best when asked to divide a bag of nuts among the assembled company. He gave fifty to one, twenty to another, two to another, and so on, until he was asked in astonishment why he divided them in such a manner. "I am doing it as God would," he answered, with a smile.—London Chronicle.

Be Charitable

To your horses as well as to yourself. You need not suffer from pains of any sort—your horses need not suffer. Try a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. It cures all pains. J. M. Roberts, Bakersfield, Mo., writes: "I have used your Liniment for ten years and find it to be the best I have ever used for man or beast." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Topeka, Kans., Nov. 6.—It as asserted by both parties that almost a full vote will be gotten to the polls. The most spirited fight is being waged on Governor Hoch, and the republican nominees for railway commissioners. Chairman Crummer, of the Republican committee, predicts the election of Hoch by 47,000. Mr. Ryan, of the Democrats, says W. A. Harris, for governor, will be elected by 30,000.

Denver, Nov. 6.—The Republican campaign managers are centering their final efforts on an attack on the sentiment which, it is believed, has developed in favor of the candidacy of Judge Ben B. Lindsey, who is running independently for governor.

---

Richmond, Va., Nov. 6.—In the congressional election Tuesday the vote will be light. The Democrats will carry without doubt all the districts except the ninth, now represented by a Republican. Both sides claims the district, with chances in favor of the Democrats.

---

Columbus, O., Nov. 6.—The day before election found many campaign speeches scheduled, the fight continuing to the last. The claims of the respective chairmen attracted attention, but the apathy which has made necessary an extremely strenuous campaign was still apparent and a falling off in the vote was generally anticipated.

---

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 6.—Mississippi will return the Democratic candidate in each congressional district Tuesday. General apathy prevails, and a moderate vote is expected.

---

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Since the closing of the campaign on Saturday night,, both Chairman Boeschenstein of the Democratic state central committee, and Chairman of the Republican Committee West, have busied themselves with what they term an accurate forecast of Tuesday's elections. Their estimates of the results vary widely. Chairman Boeschenstein claims that the Democrats will carry Cook county by 10,000, and Chairman West asserts that the Republicans will have a plurality of at least 35,000 in Cook county.

---

Boston, Mass., Nov. 6.—The political campaign this year is being carried on practically until the opening of the polls. Governor Guild addressed a meeting of market men at Fanuell Hall at noon Monday, while John B. Moran, the Democratic, prohibition and Independence league candidate, planned to visit all the 25 Boston wards Monday evening, making brief speeches in each.

---

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 6—Chairman J. Craig Smith, of the state Democratic executive committee is confident that there will be a larger Democratic vote polled Tuesday than in several years. Also that every state and congressional nominee of the party will be elected by increased majorities.

---

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 6.—Reports from various points show that the Democrats expect to secure a full vote on Tuesday.

---

Indianapolis, Nov. 6.—With the exception of a meeting Monday night at Richmond, by Rev. Thomas H. Kuhn, Democrat for congress in the sixth district, the campaign in Indiana closed Saturday.

---

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 6.—The contest in Tennessee between M. R. Patterson, Democrat, and H. Clay Evans, Republican, is close. Both parties claim the election by from 20,000 to 30,000. The vote is expected to be light on account of serious disaffection in Democratic ranks, upon which hope of the Rebuplicans' success is based.

---

Providence, R. I., Nov. 6.—Both parties are claiming victory at the polls Tuesday.

---

Philadelphia, Nov. 6.—The campaign in this state and city closed practically on Saturday night and the party managers devoted Monday to final preparations for Tuesday's battle.

---

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 6.—Monnecticut Republicans are confident of maintaining their majority of the last several years and that Colonel Rollins Woodruff, of this city, will be elected governor, while the Democrats express themselves as hopeful of success.

---

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 6.—After an active campaign the Republicans claim four of the five congressional districts.

---

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 6.—The election Tuesday will be quiet in North Carolina, except in the eighth congressional district, the contest being between Blackburn, Republican incumbent, and Hackett, Democrat.

---

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 6.—Chairman L. Heisler Ball, of the Newcastle county Republican committee, predicts a Republican victory in Delaware of about 3,000 and the lection of a Republican legislature.

---

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 5.—All political parties arranged for the windup of their campaigns throughout the state.

---

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 6.—The indications Monday are that the Democrats will carry all seven districts in the congressional election. There is no opposition in six of the districts.

If you come in here and buy a Hart Schaffner & Marx suit, consider all the results of the transaction to you. Leave us out of it; assume that we make a fair profit; we do.

But you make a better profit than we do; you get the clothes. You get absolutely honest, all-wool fabrics; clothes you can respect; that you don't have to apologize for or be ashamed of because they're not what they seem.

You get what no "mercerized cotton" clothes could ever give you---long, satisfying service; shape-keeping service; tailoring that fits your ideas and shape; style that's distinctive.

Such clothes preserve and strengthen a man's self-respect; "mercerized cotton" makes a man ashamed to look his clothes in the face; or ought to.

NOTICE TO THE LADIES.

Mrs. W. H. Palmer Requests Them to Send Sofa Cushions to Fair.

It is gratifying to learn that Mrs. W. H. Palmer, who so generously assumed the responsible position as manager of the woman's work department for Alachua county at the State Fair, has met with a great deal of encouragement and success, through the co-operation of the ladies in various sections of the county. This lady has labored hard and zealously for the success of this department, with gratifying results.

But, while the display is an elegant one, it is a strange fact that there is a distressing absence of sofa cushions, or pillows, which is considered one of the leading articles of handiwork of the household. There has been so far not a single cushion among the great variety of other articles, and Mrs. Palmer is very anxious that a few cushions be displayed.

Ladies owning sofa pillows of rare workmanship are requested to send same to the Gainesville Furniture Company's store not later than tomorrow (Thursday, Nov. 8). Be careful to mark them properly with name of owner, and same will be preserved with utmost care and returned to the owner at the expiration of the Fair free of cost.

For the best sofa pillow, cotton or linen embroidery, there is offered a prize of $2 and diploma; for the best sofa pillow in Mount Mellick embroidery, $2 and diploma; for the best sofa pillow in shadow embroidery, $2 and diploma; silk embroidery, $2 and diploma; Battenburg lace, $2 and diploma. One dollar and diploma for best sofa pillow in drawn work, fancy work, cross-stitch embroidery, cut work.

The defendant was fined $5 and costs or thirty days upon the streets.
